ORAL JUDGEMENT

I have heard Mr.Mitul Shelat, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents No.1 and 2 and also Mr.S.N. Bhatt, learned AGP appearing on behalf of the respondent No.3, State. Mr.Shelat, learned Counsel submits that the petition was filed for seeking admission in B.Ed. course in the year 1993, but no interim relief was granted to the petitioner. As a result, the petitioner could not take admission in the aforesaid course. It appears that the case was filed in 1993 and during these eight years, the petitioner has not been showing any interest to proceed with the case. Perhaps the refusal of interim relief made the petitioner disinterested in pursuing the matter.

I do not find any ground to keep the matter pending any more, since a period of eight years has already lapsed. The petition is accordingly disposed of as having become infructuous. Rule is discharged. No order as to costs. However, if the petitioner is aggrieved, he may approach this Court.
